TRICKLES FROM MARION SCHOOL

By BOBBY SPRITE

Everything is getting along all O. K. and most of the country pupils have been broken.

00

The teachers are all smiles this week over the new desks which they have received. They are certainly nice and Prof. Kee's is a cabinet in which he can hide his feet.

00

A Teacher to a Pupil—"Let me see if you have read the new catechism. Can you look up into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?"

The Pupil—"Sure! You can see the sky, and the sky runs away the other side of the stars, don't it? Them questions is easy."

00

The Junior High school is with the aid of the sight grade, reading Burke's speech.

00

The old teachers tables have been put in the corner to put the water coolers on.

00

Teacher—"How are getting along with your arithmetic, John?"

Pupil—"I have learned to add the oughts, but the figures bother me."

00

The walks in and around the school yard are in a very bad condition and are sadly in need of repairing. The trustees would delight each pupil if they would attend to this matter.

00

Mrs. Walker, (to small pupil)—"What well known animal supplies you with food and clothing?"

Small Pupil, (after some thought)—"My father."

00

Loud bits of oratory can be heard coming from the High School room, afternoon after school. The contestants for the oratorical contest are getting ready for the event.

00

Prof. Kee read the Sunday School lesson Monday as usual and gave some fine and humorous comments on the lesson.

00

The Library has been reheated for the spring term and is now ready for business at the usual place.

00

An excitement as great as the uprising in Russia, was caused in the sixth grade Wednesday over a boy losing his hat. They had better put strings or bells on them.

00

Defacing the surface of a teacher's desk is by far the gravest crime that can be committed by a pupil.

Child's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Mrs. John Englehardt, of Gera, Mich., tells of the anxious moments spent over her little two-year-old daughter who had taken a hard cold resulting in croup. She says: "If it had not been for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy she would have choked to death. I gave her this medicine every ten minutes and she soon began to throw up the phlegm. I can recommend it in the highest terms as I have another child that was cured in the same way." Sold by Haynes & Taylor.

The Home Merchant

Who is the home merchant? He is the man who helps pay the for the streets upon which you walk; for the schools in which your children are (and perhaps you were) educated; he helps to keep up the church in which you worship; he is the man who builds a home which enhances the value of your property; every subscription paper that is passed around, his name is on it, he is the one that can not afford to swindle you; he carries his share of the burdens of good government, and stays with you in sunshine and darkness, in adversity and prosperity. But these are but a few of the reasons why your patronage should be given to the home merchant. —Elizabethtown Mirror.

CATARRH GROWING LESS

Due to the Use Hyomei—Cures Without Stomach Dosing

There has been a marked falling off of sales of catarrh cures in the local stores the past year. Medicines which were formerly purchased in gross lots are now seldom called for, and the druggist rarely buys more than a dozen at a time.

Hyomei is a notable exception to this decrease in sales. It is, in fact, largely responsible for the lessened sales of catarrh medicines, as it has cured so many people of catarrhal troubles that naturally there is less call for remedies for that disease.

There is no disagreeable stomach dosing with Hyomei. It is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every Hyomei outfit. Haynes & Taylor give their personal guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the treatment cures, so that you run no risk at in buying this reliable remedy.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles if needed, 50c.

Wages, The Dollar Left Over

Out of our 85,000,000 of population, 35,000,000 are wage earners. If they should receive the compensation of $1 per day, the money thus earned would add to the daily circulation of our country $35,000,000. If the reason of protective legislation, they should receive $2 per day, then we have $70,000,000 in circulation instead of $35,000,000, and a like ratio of increase in wages will increase the amount of money placed daily in circulation, for money is the basis upon which all wealth is accumulated. The marring of each day's business is the possibility of gain. The greater the volume the greater the possibility of a margin. Truly, Wendell Phillips uttered something worthy of more than passing notice when he said: "It is the dollar left on Saturday evening, after all bills are paid, that means educator, independence, self-respect, and manhood. It increases the value of every acre nearby, fills the town with dwellings, opens public libraries and crowds them, dots the continent with cities and cobwebs it with railways. The one remaining dollar insures progress and guarantees millions to its owner." —The Republican Text Book.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by Haynes & Taylor.
